

23.04.2025

Present: Mr. Rajat Kumar, Adv for plaintiff.

On hearing learned counsel for plaintiff and perusing record, in view of contention raised by the applicant in the application as also in the main case and also considering nature of relief so sought particularly against the defendant No.4, to my mind, the application under Section 80(2) CPC so preferred by the plaintiff seeking leave qua defendant No.4 deserves to be allowed in the interest of justice. Accordingly the application stands disposed of. After needful it be tagged.

2 In view of above, the defendants be served with summons in the main case for 02.06.2025. The defendant No.5 G P be served through advertisement of notice in daily local newspaper on taking steps in 03 days for the date so fixed.
